Awards

The Queen's Awards are announced annually by Her Majesty The Queen, on the advice of the Prime Minister, and are regarded as the most prestigious business awards in the country, recognising companies that are outstanding in their field. We demonstrated that our business has achieved substantial growth in overseas earnings and in commercial success (for our business size and sector) through continuous achievement over a six year period.

The Sunday Times International Track 200 (2014)

St Giles International ranked 77th of the top 200 UK private companies that saw the fastest growth in overseas sales within a 2-year period with an average 48.5% overseas sales growth ending December 12, 2013.

London Central

- Magnificent school located in the heart of the capital
- Learn English in London, one of the world's great cities
- Large, busy, friendly school
- Option to live in the school building
- Newly refurbished reception, entrance hall & café for 2019

Our London Central English school occupies a magnificent 100-year-old building in the heart of fashionable Bloomsbury. It's situated opposite Russell Square and is just a 5-minute walk to the British Museum. From this great location, it is easy for students to explore the capital city - it is within walking distance of famous London landmarks and has great transport links.

Cambridge

Welcoming mid-sized school in a convenient location
Experience life in a historic university city
Our newest school- completely refurbished for 2018!

The school is based in a traditional building and an update has been completed to bring the old and new together by keeping the historical architecture of the building, whilst also creating modern and well-equipped classrooms. This blend of the old and the new continues in the city - alongside beautiful historic buildings, you'll find a thoroughly modern city with a vibrant international feel, a thriving cultural scene and some great shopping and restaurants!

Brighton

A fantastic city-centre location in a vibrant seaside city

Exclusive St Giles George Street Residence, just 4 minutes' walk from the school

A large friendly school with an exciting atmosphere

Brighton is a young cosmopolitan city with a population of 250,000. It is only an hour away from London and rivals the capital for its outstanding restaurants, pubs and bars, and its successful arts and theatre scene. St Giles Brighton is located right in the centre of the city, directly opposite the famous Royal Pavilion. It's only minutes away from the beach and from the city's main shopping and entertainment districts. With an excellent nationality mix, our Brighton school is ideal for students looking for a lively and cultural experience.
